It is hoped that the sale will draw a large crowd as there is some mighty good stuff for sale. See ad in this issue.

Odd Fellow Celebration

Saturday will be a big day in I. O. O. F. circles in Mansfield, and a number of out of town visitors are also expected to be here to enjoy the day with the local lodge.

At the Odd Fellow hall at 2 o'clock degree work will be conferred. It is expected this will last about one hour, after the degree work, Hon. E. B. Garner of Hartville will hold a school of instruction, to which all Odd Fellows are cordially invited. Mr. Garner is exceptionally well versed in Odd Fellowship, and is able to do this work in an able manner. At 6:30 an oyster and general supper will be served to Odd Fellows and members of their families at the G. A. R. Hall. The Odd Fellows will provide the oysters and coffee, and their wives will supply the other eatables. If you are an Odd Fellow or a member of an Odd Fellow's family, be there. Hon. J. W. Wilkerson of St. Louis, former grand secretary and probably the best versed Odd Fellow in the state, will be here and will deliver a public address at 8:30 at the I. O. O. F. Hall, to which all are invited. Do not fail to hear the splendid address, which is free to everybody.

A Musical Treat.
Mansfield music lovers and patrons were the recipients of a genuine treat at the opera house last Saturday evening. Advance complimentary notices regarding the Cheney Concert Co. were proved to be justified in every way. For almost two hours the audience was completely carried away in an intense appreciation of one of the very best companies of musicians appearing in this part of the country.

Miss Maude Cheney, on the violin, delighted the audience with her splendid rendition of a characteristic interpretation of "The Mocking Bird," being obliged to respond to an encore on that number. Owen Cheney's variations on the "Flower March" from "The Merchant of Venice" showed him to possess a splendid range of tone and flexibility of lip on the trumpet. Marx Cheney likewise proved himself to be a capable interpreter of the classics, his "cello solo," "I Dreamt I Dwell in Marble Halls" from "The Bohemian Girl" being of exceptionally high quality. Miss Pauline Cheney presided at the piano throughout the performance, demonstrating her ability as an accompanist of unusual merit. Overtures, "Queen of All" and "Poet and Peasant" and the "Ballad Music" from "William Tell" were excellent numbers rendered by the entire company.

The "White House" Golden Chimes were a novelty and were enjoyed by all. Several excerpts from Victor Herbert's compositions and from "Faust" elicited well-merited applause. The audience was also treated to a few pleasing vocal numbers. With the completion of several patriotic numbers on the chimes the audience left the building satisfied that the Mansfield Parent-Teacher Association had made no mistake in selecting the Cheney Concert Co. as one of the numbers of their Community Lyceum Course.

Parent-Teacher Meeting

The Parent-Teacher Association held an interesting meeting at the school house last night. Mrs. H. E. Newton read a paper on "Practical Co-Operation Between Parent and School," which was discussed by several of those present. Among other things discussed was the matter of putting up the school bell, which was done by the association. One new member, Mrs. J. B. Freeman, was received. The next meeting will be held Nov. 10.

Remember the Bazaar Nov. 7, and be there.—Adv.

What connection is there between the rewards in this life and those in the future life? Mrs. Opal Coday.

What reward of religion appeals most to you? Mrs. Ella Carter.

Please be present and talk on your question if possible or get some one to talk in your place.

Athletic Association Organized.

At an informal meeting Tuesday night plans were formulated for an athletic association in Mansfield. Officers were elected and a membership committee was appointed. A committee of three was named to draft the constitution and by laws of the association. Quite a number of subjects were deliberated on, chief among them a permanent home for the organization.

It is recognized that the success of the undertaking depends to a great extent on the public's endorsement. The prime purpose of the association is the athletic development of the young men, and providing a clean place for the recreation and amusement of the young men. The organization will be maintained by the method of monthly membership dues, a nominal sum being assessed. The next meeting will probably be held the latter part of next week, at which time the association will be opened and members taken in.

W. H. Fullington, President.
O. S. Coday, Vice President.
J. F. Hudson, Secretary.
B. E. Coats, Treasurer.
H. A. Short, Sergeant-at-arms.
Jasper Craig, Superintendent of Equipment.

Pea Ridge

Mrs. L. L. Land spent one night last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Beckott.

The protracted meeting began Sunday night at the New Hope church.

Mrs. Eller Harvey and children visited relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Vernon Newton called at Arthur Chapman's Sunday evening.

Preaching at the Methodist church at Pea Ridge every 4th Sunday; Rev. G. F. Bundy, pastor. Sunday school every Sunday; F. A. Dodson, superintendent; Miss Verbie Fuge, secretary.

STEAMBOAT BILL

Installs Auto Delivery

Mansfield's first auto delivery has been installed by P. W. Newton, the old reliable grocer, who is now in a better position than ever to make prompt deliveries. He says he can deliver the goods now in the time it previously took to harness up the horse. A Ford runabout is used by Mr. Newton in giving Mansfield this additional taste of metropolitan life.

Pie Supper at Flat Rock.

There will be a pie supper at Flat Rock school house Friday night, Nov. 3, the proceeds to be used for an out door gymnasium at the school. A program will be given before the pies are sold. A cake will be awarded to the handsomest girl, and soap and a towel to the ugliest man. Every body cordially invited.—Adv.

Harry Hight Shot.

Harry, the 10 year-old son of John Hight, met with what might have proved a fatal accident Sunday afternoon about two o'clock. Several boys were playing at the Hight home with a gun, which was discharged while in the hands of "Midget" King, the 22 calibre bullet striking the Hight boy in the forehead in a glancing manner and passing out at the top of the head. Dr. R. M. Rogers probed and dressed the wound and Harry is getting along as well as could be expected and it is thought that he will make a complete recovery. All of which goes to show that a gun in the hands of a boy is not the safest plaything in the world, even if it is thought the gun is not loaded, as these "unloaded" guns seem to be as fatal as the loaded ones.

And speaking of guns, bullets without guns are sometimes as bad, as a certain young lady of Mansfield can testify. The other day as she was sweeping the floor she put the dirt into a stove, and a bullet whizzed by her head. She dropped to the floor, later remarking that if anyone had told her she was dead she would have believed it. She had swept up a cartridge with the dirt.

School Notes

By B. E. Coats, Superintendent

The members of the faculty are attending the meeting of the Southwest Missouri Teachers' Association at Springfield Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Literary Society was held in both High School and Grammar Departments on Wednesday this week as there will be no school on Thursday and Friday. Mr. Fullington's department visited Mr. Hudson's department to hear the program.

The Seniors and Juniors had a candy-pulling at J. N. Craig's home Tuesday night. A royal good time was had by all.

Cecil Brazel, last year's graduate, and Clelland Hitchcock visited school Monday morning.

The basketball teams have good prospects of an indoor court in the near future.

There will be a pie supper at the school building Friday night, Nov. 3. If you want to have a good time be there.

Two new students are enrolled in the grammar department this week, and one in the first intermediate department. There is always room for one more.

The Sophomores are studying Hawthorne's "Tales of the White Hills" in their English class.

Prairie Hollow and Olathe

Mrs. Lou Roy of Bryant spent Saturday and Sunday at L. M. Roy's.

The revival meeting closed at the Prairie Hollow Baptist church Sunday. We certainly had a fine meeting, the pastor, Rev. Harlo Hague, of Ava, being assisted by Rev. George Schafer of Protem, Ark.

Miss Zella Letsinger spent Friday night with her Uncle Marie Letsinger and attended church at Prairie Hollow.

Leonard Roy spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

The Roy school was dismissed Thursday and Friday on account of the revival at Prairie Hollow.

Walter Thomas was the guest of Leonard Roy Saturday and Sunday.

Ralph and Russell Robertson spent Thursday night with Herman and Amos Williams.

Preaching at Prairie Hollow every second Saturday and Sunday. Sunday school every Sunday. Prayer meeting every Wednesday night, and Christian Endeavor every Sunday night.
